

June 13, 1950.

The Gettysburg Battlefield Guides Association met on the above date in the Chamber of Commerce Room. Pres. Swinn presiding. The President reported that Prof. Lefever asked him to get three guides for buses from Chambersburg workshop of the P. S. E. A.

Mr. J. M. Sheedo thanked the guides, through Pres. Swinn, who accompanied the G. B. S. Senior class over the field.

Pres. Swinn proposed that we have 100% membership in the Guides Association and that dues for 1950-51, be paid by all guides.

Pres. Swinn also proposed that the following guides be made honorary members of the association: Ned Yeary, Oliver Miller, Ira Ziegler, Lester Mahring & Robt. Bollinger

It was moved by Mr. Garvin & seconded by Mr. Cross that the executive committee ask Dr. Coleman to authorize the following men to act as guides in busy times: Chas. Rosssteel, Sam Sheads, Milton Russell, John Ogden, Selman Hess, Pinkney Hess, Curran Krout & Bernard Partridge. Motion passed.

It was mentioned that the Association should ask C. Butt, Ralph Butt, E. F. Larson, Ira Williams, Lawrence Sheads, and Ray Miller to guide on week ends and busy days.

The president appointed the following committees:

- Entertainment with the following duties
1. Outing or picnic in July at Sheffer's or Benness.
 2. Arrange for Banquet of association,

Park officials and employees.

3. Get together, business men, guides and park officials.

4. Arrange for sermon in some church for guides some Sunday night. Members are:

John Hamilton, J. Guy Wolf, J. A. Holzworth, Lester Trayer, Charles Wolf.

Financial Committee whose duties are:

1. To collect association dues

2. Collect other monies that may be asked for, as securing folders put out by C. of C. for individual use.

3. Collect $1.00 for Police Magazine.

4. Collect $3.00 for C. of C. folders.

The members are: Benton Gilbert, Peter McIntire, Logan Irwin, William Abel, Clarence Rummel and Harry Bumbaugh.

Advertising Committee whose duties are

1. Procure cards from the printing shop.
2. Place cards in store windows
3. Confer with the president of the Chamber of Commerce about folders for use of guides, individual or group.

The members are -

Luther McDonnell, Harry Koch,
Robert Weikert, and Roy Vaughn

adjournment

Lloyd R. Hartman Secy.