PROCEDURE FOR INCORPORATION
(NON-PROFIT CORPORATION)

The Pennsylvania Department of State is the granting authority for all non-profit corporations and is the storehouse for those papers and other related corporation papers. In order to incorporate a business in Pennsylvania:

1. Call the Corporation Bureau, Department of State at (717) 787-1057 to determine if the name is available. Note that this does not reserve the name.
2. If you wish to reserve the name send a letter of form DSCB:17.3B and a check for $10 to reserve the name for 60 days.
3. Prepare Articles of Incorporation in the proper format, as prescribed in Title 15, Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes 7316, and exemplified in the form DSCB:7316, Articles of Incorporation, Domestic Non-Profit.

Send the following documents to the Secretary of the Commonwealth at Room 308, North Office Building, Harrisburg, PA 17120, either by mail or in person:

- a. Name reservation, if applicable.
- b. Consent to Appropriation of Name form 17.2 or Consent to Use Similar Name form 17.3, if applicable.
- c. Articles of Incorporation - the articles will be filed and returned immediately upon receipt by the Bureau.
- d. $75 check, draft or money order payable to the Secretary of the Commonwealth in payment of the filing fee.

5. Publish in two newspapers of general circulation, in English, in the county where the initial registered office of the corporation is located either the intention to file or the filing of the Articles of Incorporation. One newspaper should be the legal newspaper, if any.

6. The Secretary of the Commonwealth will review, file, copy, microfilm and return the original Articles of Incorporation. No Certificate of Incorporation is issued for non-profit corporations.

These ballots must be filed no later than July 22. MTI, U.S. Sprint, and Telephone Long Distance need to offer their long distance services in these areas. Any companies will handle customer long distance calls to other area codes with Pennsylvania. United Telephone will continue to handle regional toll

United Telephone has no preference for these companies," said Bradcock. "We're most concerned about customers complete and their ballot promptly—but not later than June 14. That's very important to the success of this program."

The Speaker's Bureau for United Telephone System will give a slide presentation to groups who do not understand the ballot or change-over process. "We are not allowed to respond to customer questions about the firms or in any way influence the customer's selection," Bradcock said. The ballot includes a toll-free 800 number for each of the participating long distance companies for any questions about their particular services.

Anyone with any questions about the change-over procedure or ballot can contact Brad Adcock at (717) 245-7762.
